<http://www.thornr.demon.co.uk/kchrist/espírito.html>

“What this feast does on an annual basis is to ritualize the prophecy of the future Empire of the Holy Spirit or the Spirit of Truth...The Feast of the Coronation of the Emperor of the Holy Spirit symbolizes also another prophecy: not only peace on earth and good will among men, but also the reconciliation among the three great religions of the Book, perhaps among all the religions of the world through the means of the symbolism of the hovering dove, the tongues of fire and the Spirit of Truth...”

In addition to her many books and other publications, Anne Baring, Jungian Analyst, has a website that is an invaluable resource for those especially interested in the divine feminine. And for the purposes of this project on Lusitania, it is resource that helps establish the relationship between the divine feminine and the Holy Spirit. She writes:

I have been working on this book on the Soul for twenty years and am putting some chapters onto the website. More will follow shortly. Eventually, I hope to find an Internet publishing site from which people can download this book. Obviously this material is copyright but I am happy for people to draw on it, provided they acknowledge its source. Anne Baring
